member benefits

Colorado Summit for Recycling

This annual conference brings together recycling professionals from throughout Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. The event features educational sessions that address every aspect of recycling, including public education, collection, processing, markets and recycled-content products.

Excellence in Recycling Awards

Annual statewide awards are presented to outstanding individuals and organizations involved in recycling throughout Colorado.

Networking Meetings

This is a great way to make new contacts or stay connected with your recycling peers. The meetings include guest speakers, discussions on new trends in recycling, and tours of recycling or manufacturing facilities. Membership in CAFR helps get you in the loop.

Advocacy

CAFR keeps track of and promotes items of importance to the recycling community, educates legislators and decision makers, and works with other organizations to ensure that the voice of recycling is heard in Colorado.

Website & Publications:

Solutions to Your Recycling Needs

Whether you are looking for access to recycling markets or companies that provide recycling in your community, the CAFR website and staff can help. CAFR's online membership directory makes it easy to find information about members' products and services. The website also lists job opportunities and recycling events. Stay current on the latest news in the Colorado recycling industry with the CAFR's quarterly newsletter and bi-weekly electronic updates.

Recycling Organizations of North America (RONA)

CAFR is a member organization of RONA. RONA is an international organization that aspires to further develop and enhance recycling programs and the recycling industry, www.recyclingorganizations.org. You will receive national information from RONA through CAFR.

Why You Should Join ...

The Colorado Association for Recycling (CAFR) is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit association. Our members represent all facets of the recycling industry: state and local governments, universities, non-profit organizations, large and small businesses and citizen recyclers. No other recycling organization within Colorado offers such diverse interests and expertise. CAFR offers programs that allow you to learn more about recycling and work with experts around the state on solid waste management issues.

CAFR is your organization. You have input and the ability to positively impact recycling in Colorado. All members over the age of 18, with the exception of Student/Associate-level members, have a voice and vote within the organization.
